

Hawaiians

We support the establishment of a true Hawaiian Cultural Center Village in Waikiki (Our Aina-Our Land-Our Home) owned and operated by native Hawaiian (kanaka maoli). It will provide Hawaiians with a "home" for keeping their culture, arts and traditions alive and flourishing. It will also provide them with "living wages" income.

We understand that Waikiki used to be the home of native Hawaiians until the overthrow of their kingdom and the establishment of an ever-expanding tourist industry with its skyrocketing real estate prices that have outstripped "living wages", thereby forcing Hawaiians out of the area, making them homeless or pushing them to live in their vans if they are fortunate enough to even own an old car.
